1. INTRODUCTION
Discourse is a language context that exists in a conversation or communication interaction. Discourse is spoken (spoken) or known as spoken text. Oral discourse is the delivery of discourse through oral or direct media. This type of discourse requires high listening power so that the interaction in its delivery is not interrupted. Oral discourse is also difficult to repeat according to the first utterance. In its delivery, oral discourse is much shorter than written discourse. In addition, the presenter of this discourse must also use appropriate, body movements to clarify the context of what is being conveyed. Written discourse is the delivery of discourse is considered more effective and easier than oral discourse, especially in conveying knowledge and ideas. In its delivery, written discourse is much longer and uses standard language. In addition, this type of discourse also has a complete linguistic element, meaning that does not omit one or two parts. Written discourse allows others to review the contents of the discourse, without any differences in linguistic units (Kompas 2021).

Bringing up another point of view from the story of a young pregnant woman. The Little Mom movie tells the story a teenager named Naura (Natasha Wilona) who is pregnant but seen from a different view. Generally, teenagers who are pregnant out of wedlock will soon be married off and the problem is solved. It is different with the story in the Little Mom movie which tells the story of a mother’s struggle in maintaining her baby without a husband or without being known to many people. Departing from a true story the story in this film is a true story that is often found in Indonesian society. The Little Mom movie is based on portraits of people in real life. Based on the 2018 WHO data, this movie reveals the high number of early marriages in the world. According to expert moral values are the related with human behavior about goodness and badness. It is a kind of doctrine accepted by society regarding the actions, attitudes, obligations, morals, manners, and decency. Understanding certain good and bad things is relative (2018). Movies are one of the media that are in demand by many people as entertainment and relieving fatigue. In the film itself, there are many genres to an appropriate age limit for the audience to enjoy starting from children, teenagers, to adult. One examples of a film for children is Zootopia, which is an animated film that tells the story of a rabbit's dream to become a police officer. However, behind the packaging of the film that is interesting for children to watch, there is a derogatory utterance contained in the film. Aida, Roby Nur (2021). Most of the movie adapted from real story in the world and the other adapted from books or novel. Most of people use film or movie to entertain, criticize, advertisement, believing to God, science, etc. In the developing era, moral degradation happened because of the influences of bad culture like drink alcohol, act criminal, marriage by accident, kill their self, abortion and so on. Films with motivational themes are the best of all to be seen and be investigated by the writer. One of the inspiring Films is “Little Mom” movie produced in 2021. The film tells the story of a 16 years old girl who excels, is beautiful, and becomes the pride of her parents and friends. Since childhood, she dreamed of becoming an obstetrician and was already planning for her future. But, all of her dreams fell apart when she became pregnant with her boyfriend, Yuda. who went to Japan leaving her. This is the story of the twists and turns of Naura dealing with her pregnancy at a young age, how she keeps her pregnancy secret, love triangle with Keenan and Yuda, rivalry with Celine, journey to become a young mother and struggles to achieve her goals.

Moral value is a very important thing in our life and it becomes a basic need of every human in the world. The importance of moral value is to improve the quality of human life. By having good moral value people can develop their own abilities. Moral is deciding good or bad considered behavior. A morality is sacrifice from little goodness to big goodness (Hazlitt, 2003). Morality according to Bentham is art to maximize happiness; it can be seen by achieving the existence of happy and joyful life of all people (Hazlitt, 2003). The purpose of moral values education in school is to make improvement effective and development of moral judgment learners. In order to achieve this goal then moral value education should be implemented by developing concrete life atmosphere allows everyone to have attitude deep respect for each other. Activities of life values are various habits that are generally underlies a good and harmonious relationship between us and others around us. These are the habits that are difficult to be found in these times and will come. Squeezed by the attitude and the individualistic nature of modern man, hedonistic and materialistic; forget that humans are social creatures, virtuous and behave. Judiani dan Putri (2011:208-209) Moral values have a function, namely to serve human. First, it serves to remind humans to do good for themselves and others as part of society. Second, it draws attention to moral issues that humans have not responded to. Third, it can attract human attention to the symptoms of “Emotional Habituation”. Why are ethics and morals important? Because in the everyday world, business, school, community, and so on. It must be supported by an attitude in good speech and good behavior (deeds), because basically someone will see the way we talk and our behavior when talking to our interlocutor. M.Prawiro (2019).

As a future teacher, the writer should show much knowledge to build students attitude and build their characteristics. For example, by explaining the moral value of film, she can tell her future students that life is never going to be easy; they need the strong willing and guts to achieve their dreams, encounter the problem and try to solve it with critical thinking. Due to that condition, the writer analyzes the moral values in "Little Mom" movie, the writer obtains that this research can help the readers to solve their problem and emphasize the importance of moral value. So. For such purpose, the writer interested in conducting a research entitled "Discourse Analysis of Moral Values in Movie Little Mom by Descriptive Method".
